

साहित्य अकादमी पुरस्कार से सम्मानित कृति

दीवार में एक खिड़की रहती थी

विनोद कुमार शुक्ल

Diwar me ek khidki rehti thi

5rs/day

—, , — — — , — , “ ”

धर्मवीर भारती

गुनाहों का देवता

Gunahon ka devta

5rs/day

, , — — , , - , , ,

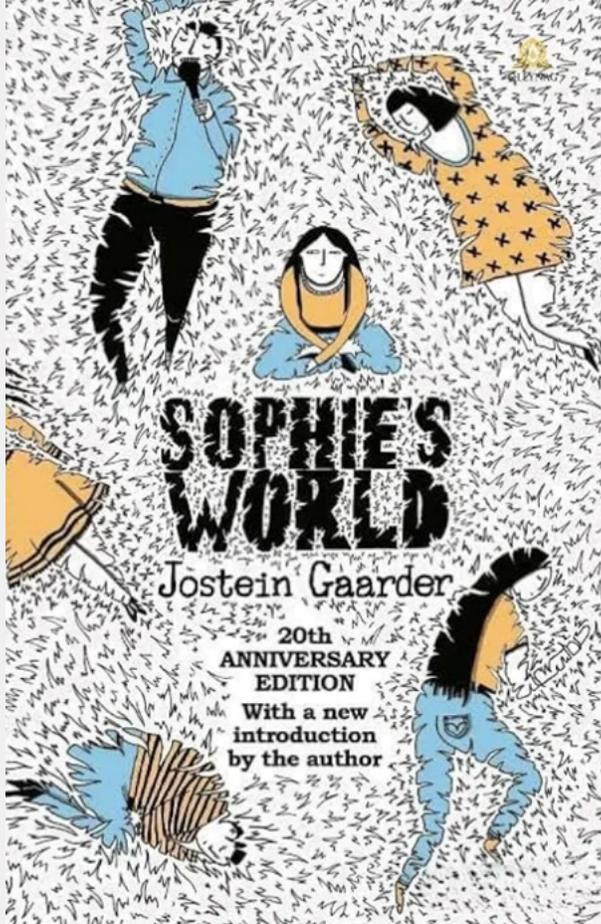

कौन-सा गुनाह? कैसा गुनाह?
किमी से ज़िन्दगी भर स्नेह रखने, प्रेम करने का गुनाह...
स्नेह और प्रेम जब अपनी पराकाष्ठा पर पहुँचने लगे तो
उसका त्याग करने का गुनाह...
है ना अजीब बात!

Notes from the underground

5rs/day

Written by Fyodor Dostoevsky, this novella follows an isolated and bitter narrator living in Saint Petersburg. Through his thoughts and past experiences, he explores human contradictions, free will, and the tendency toward self-destructive behavior.

Sofie's world

5rs/day

Written by Jostein Gaarder, Sophie's World is a unique novel that blends fiction with a fascinating introduction to philosophy. The story follows Sophie Amundsen, a young girl who begins receiving mysterious letters asking deep questions like “Who are you?” and “Where does the world come from?” As she reads these letters, she is gradually introduced to the history of philosophy—from ancient thinkers like Socrates to modern philosophers. Through her journey, Sophie not only learns about philosophical ideas but also begins to question reality, existence, and her own identity. The novel cleverly mixes storytelling with lessons, making complex philosophical concepts easy and engaging to understand. One of the most intriguing aspects of the book is its twist, where the line between fiction and reality becomes blurred, challenging both Sophie and the reader to think deeply about life and consciousness.